

The 23rd Annual Rhode Island Statewide

HISTORIC PRESERVATION CONFERENCE 2008

preservation goal      preserve historic cemeteries      more local HDC's and incentives      improve economic feasibility of preservation rural and scenic corridors of BI      Discover "green" architecture      educate town/state public works depts.      Identification and conservation      youth education

National preservation education      historic landscapes      reclaim historical accuracy at Coggeshall farm      preserve the best      Govt programs for preservation      maintain Little Compton's rural character

Controlling development      preserve the preserved      Grass is Good      improve energy efficiency      More people preserving      Maintain Newport      Preserve Rodmans homes in NK - Smith's Castle sustainability      preserving villages and downtowns      Historic District Commissions      recruit and train new preservationists      youth participation      more old buildings restored... less building of box stores      stop artifact hunters selling on ebay

More historic preservation money      What is a preservation goal for your community, the state, or the country ?      preserving villages and downtowns      History education

Adaptive reuse      preserve historic trees      Fort Adams      stop South County sprawl      Pedestrian access      First reuse, then replace advocate and preserve a historic place      public education in Warwick      Woonsocket HDC      Newport - world heritage site      Farm preservation      social and economic equality      more federal funding stop demolition by neglect      open land and unpolluted waters      Don't WASTE existing buildings      expand historic tax base and trust      preservation education

re-use      historic district commission, Cranston (Pawtuxet)      Maintain sense of place      preserve open space more private stewardship and less organizations      continue enthusiasm for historic rehab      demolition delay      preserve modern architecture      govt grants for preservation      historic district commission, Narragansett

National Register listings in Pawtucket      financing solutions before demolition      contain sprawl      improve economics of preservation      Photography and Historical Records      local historic districts

Community Design standards      Preserve/Protect/Restore      preservation tax credits      fill vacant buildings      raise awareness of economic benefits of HP      Open space/greenspace stop demolitions      preserve and maintain parks      Downtown Revitalization      move from preservation to conservation      Green restoration      Rural landscapes      affordable housing

Community input pre-demolition      public education      Pontiac Mill      maintain Bristol Downtown      new historic district commissions in Pawtuxet Village, Cranston side      Green initiatives      Maintain Benefit Street      Preserve and restore as much as possible

Implement recs. of Mayor's working group on preservation      preserve older home, from McMansions and sprawl      Stop Providence demolitions      abolish the county system

